PHILLY

Dancing Classrooms Philly's (DCP) mission is to foster self-esteem, social awareness, mutual respect, teamwork and joy in young people and their communities through social dance education and performance. Since its founding in 2007, DCP has served more than 41,000 students through in-school, after-school, and community-based social dance residencies, assemblies, and workshops. The DCP Academy and Allstars students performing this evening meet weekly at the University City Arts League to nurture their sense of teamwork, community, creativity, and self-expression. Musicopia's mission is to provide equitable access to music education and enrichment, encouraging self-confidence, global awareness, dedication and joy in Pre-K to 12th grade students and their communities. Founded by a string quartet in 1974, Musicopia has brought the joy of music to over 360,000 students through in-school assemblies and residencies, an instrument donation program, and long-term after-school programs, Musicopia Drumlines and Musicopia String Orchestra. The Musicopia String Orchestra (MSO) students performing this evening rehearse weekly at First Unitarian Church of Philadelphia, where they connect with students from across the city, learn from passionate and committed teaching artists, and find a safe space for personal and creative development. The MSO is led by Artistic Director and Conductor Taia Harlos. Learn more information can be found at www.musicopia.net. Visit bit.ly/Donate2Musicopia or text "MUSICOPIA" to 443-21 to donate today.

- We recognize and acknowledge that the University of Pennsylvania and the City of Philadelphia stand upon the Indigenous territory known as “Lenapehoking,” the traditional homelands of the Lenape, also called Lenni-Lenape or Delaware Indians. These are the people who, during the 1680s, negotiated with William Penn to facilitate the founding of the colony of Pennsylvania. Their descendants today include the Delaware Tribe and Delaware Nation of Oklahoma; the Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape, Ramapough Lenape, and Powhatan Renape of New Jersey; and the Munsee Delaware of Ontario.
